Foreword

We, the class of '47 present the TOWER, with the hope that in future years when the tide of life has begun to engulf us, we may linger over these pages and recall the four, full, happy years spent within the walls of Cathedral High. May it also help to renew, in a small way, old friendships and acquaintances, and also the many delightful experiences we have shared together.

Dedication

We, the class of 1947, dedicate this TOWER to Jules Pequignot, our former coach of athletics. His great interest in the welfare of all our sports along with his ability, contributed much to make good sportsmen of all the students who came under his training.

A native of Connecticut, he attended St. Michael's College in Winooski Park and later held the position of assistant coach at Mount St. Joseph's Academy in Rutland. He then came to Cathedral to fill worthily the position of coach and teacher.

He was most efficient as a teacher as well as a productive coach, taking great interest in all students. By his friendliness he won the heart of everyone. He will long be remembered by all at C. H. S.

It is with sincere appreciation, therefore, that we offer in our dedication this small token of our deepest gratitude and to wish him the greatest success in his future work.

Tribute to
OUR MOST REVEREND BISHOP

To our beloved Bishop, Most Reverend Edward F. Ryan, D.D., the class of 1947 wishes to express its sincere devotion.

Although our friendship has been brief, we have come to love and admire this man who has given his all for our welfare. We will always remember him in our prayers in order that God may light his way in future labors.

OUR RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR

You are a friend we admire and respect both for your wise counsel and instruction, and for your great ability and leadership. In striving to follow your advice, we shall step into an inspiring future.

Tribute to
OUR PRINCIPAL

Oftentimes it is difficult to express the heartfelt gratitude due to someone who has unselfishly given his all for our welfare. Words cannot convey the appreciation we feel for such a person.

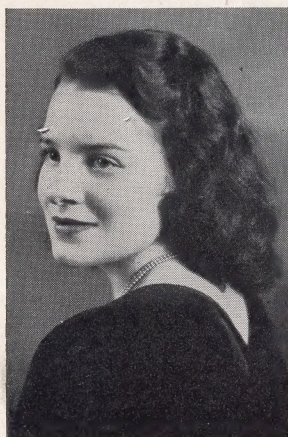

Therefore, we hope that through compliance with his principles and ideals in our future lives, we can prove to him, our Principal, the admiration and respect we have come to have for him.

VALEDICTORY

"All good things must come to an end," and so thus must our cherished high school career.

Fellow students, tonight marks the last formal gathering of our class of 1947. We have been companions for four years—four years to some of us diligent application to our studies; four years of light and shade to all of us; four years of social fellowship and pleasant recreation; four years of mental, moral and physical improvement. We have all looked forward to this day with the same feeling most people have when they look forward to the completion of so great a thing as high school. Yes, joy but now that the time has finally come, our feeling of joy is mingled with one of sorrow—sorrow because we are leaving behind so great a school as Cathedral.

However, our sorrow is somewhat pacified by the knowledge that we have been given by Almighty God, the Reverend Father, our teachers and parents, the spiritual and intellectual teachings needed to venture forth and face the battle of life as best we can.

Your Excellency, Reverend Fathers, and teachers, we go forward tonight with our diplomas as the key to the future. We are bidding you farewell with a feeling of profoundest esteem for the wisdom, forbearance, uniform justice, and kindness that you have ever manifested toward us within these walls. We shall always use the teachings of our Alma Mater as the link to success and we sincerely hope that we shall be of great credit to you all.

Dear parents, we are unable at the present to express our gratitude for your sacrifices the way we should, so until our future proves thus, kindly accept a simple "thank you."

Fellow underclassmen, we leave you here to so maintain the honor of this institution that you may depart from it with its greatest blessings as we are doing tonight.

The hour of parting draws nigh. Many of us may never meet each other again in this world, but let us pray Almighty God that He will lead us all into eternal happiness. Farewell, and may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us all.

GERALDINE DEVARNEY

SALUTATORY

Tonight, it is my singular privilege to extend to each and every one of you a sincere welcome from the class of nineteen hundred and forty-seven.

During the course of four very short years you, our parents, teachers, relatives, and friends have "watched us advance in wisdom and grace with God and men." You, whose paternal guidance has directed our every action for many years, whose loving understanding has aided us in all our difficulties, have endeared yourselves to us always.

We will not fail you. Those Catholic principles which are so well exemplified in you, have become a part of us. We cannot, we will not forget those ideals which are embodied in our very hearts.

Today, more than ever, with the world torn between faith and starvation, the need of truly Catholic good-will toward men is an obligation as well as a privilege. We, who have shed our last garment of youth, accept this challenge cheerfully.

Tonight, as men and women, we face a world which will require every ounce of courage and fortitude possible for us to bolster. We are aware of enemies lurking on every side, prepared to defy and deface our very principles. Our faith may be rocked from its very foundation but we will not yield. This will be the test of our education. We are confident that your teaching will come to our rescue in every case and enable us to emerge victorious.

Our prayers will always go with you as we hope yours are with us. Always remember us who can never forget you.

MARY ELLEN FULLER.

CLASS HISTORY

Quite truthfully it has been said "History is the bridge connecting the present time with the past." It is a bridge over which we shall pass and review some of the important events of the best years of our lives; where every span records a memorable occasion or achievement of our school days at C. H. S. It must of necessity be brief, so we will just glance at the principal points of interest along the way.

Four years ago, our class numbering one hundred and twenty-seven students besieged Cathedral High. With pounding hearts and mingled feelings of joy and excitement, we invaded the stronghold and joined forces with the renowned tribe of Little Indians.

As every tribe or organization needs leaders to guide them, we chose the following ones to serve us through the years—Theodore St. Antoine, Agnes McKenzie, Thomas Blow, Harry McCarthy, Jeanne Audette, Robert Daley, and Lorraine Langlois. Several of these served in different capacities through different years. We are sure the experience they gained through this work will help them in the future.

Like all "first timers," we were thrilled with the fact that this year we could participate in the time honored institution of Stunt Nite. Our attempt that year did not meet with the approval of the judges, nevertheless, we gained valuable experience and so when another year rolled around, we walked off with the second prize, our theme being, "The Nut House."

Luck was not with us during our junior year either. Our Arabian Night's fantasy which we presented drew long applause from the audience, but once again, the judges did not see fit to give us the coveted prize.

As our finale, we put on a very colorful South American Fiesta, complete with charming señoritas and gay caballeros. Even the brave toreador and his victim were included. Again we received the second prize. "Such is fate."

No other event in the school year can ever take the place of Stunt Nite. Let us hope it will continue from year to year with that same friendly rivalry.

The first prom that we were privileged to take part in was sponsored by the Sodality. It came in mid-winter. Luckily it was leap year and the girls certainly took advantage of that. As is customary at these Sodality proms, the statue of the Blessed Virgin is decorated with flowers and the dancers sing a hymn to the Virgin, making a very impressive ceremony.

Among the many activities which Father Joy arranged for us during the years were, the weekly socials and Field Days which were held at Centennial Field, as well as the never-to-be-forgotten trip which we took last fall in a bus down through the beautiful Champlain Valley. We also visited New York

State, going as far as Fort Ticonderoga and stopping at many historic points along the way.

Music plays a very definite part of our life at Cathedral. The excellent performance of our band, orchestra, and glee clubs is unexcelled. Many in our class have been participants in the various groups since their freshman year. Of course the big event is the Vermont State Music Festival. That is where Cathedral really does itself proud. What would a basketball game be without the good old band to spur them on while they play "On Cathedral." Among the members of our class who have been chosen for "All State" are: Jeanne Audette, Theresa Bashaw, Ann Chaperon, Peter Carney, Barbara Gibbons, Gerry Daigneault, Roy Farmer, John Farnham, Robert Daley, Arlene O'Hare, Norman McEnrue, David Bixby, Harry McCarthy, Harold Thomas, Louise McKenzie, Howard Ross, Gloria D'Orazio, Arlene Holcomb, and Jane Sherman.

In the field of sports, we boast of many prominent athletes. Basketball, the popular sport at C. H. S. has such names as Kenny Kane, Harry McCarthy, Bob Reuschel, Dick Hammond, Leo Croto, and Gerry Daigneault on their roster. These boys are well known over all the State, having played in previous tournaments as well as representing Vermont in the New England Catholic Tournament. Girls' basketball is rapidly coming into its own and this year we were represented by Agnes McKenzie, Marion McGarghan, Mary Delorge, Jean Rock, and Rose Rouille.

After a lapse of twenty-three years, Cathedral once again embarked on a gridiron career by forming a football team. The following members played: Reuschel, Fitzgerald, Hammond, Hamlin, Kane, Mitchell, Bixby, Daigler, Farmer, and Shepard.

Members of our class who wield the mighty "war club" in baseball are: Daigler, Mitchell, Daigneault, Bixby, Ross and Reuschel.

One of the new activities which were revived during our Freshman year were the debating teams. Much interest was shown by our class in the manner in which they tackled the problem and the persuasive arguments they used to gain their point. Some members who have taken part in our debating teams which were usually successful are: Teddy St. Antoine, Helen Verchereau, Herman Stockinger, Charles Billups, Harry McCarthy, Gabrielle Gauthier, Donald Hamlin, Louise McKenzie, and Mary Ellen Fuller.

In scholastic attainments, we feel that our class is not inferior to any which has come before it. We have emerged from timid and hesitant Freshmen through a challenging and richly rewarded four years to conscientious Seniors.

And now, we have completed our journey over this bridge of history. How pleasant and memorable it has been.

When the class of 1947 meets again it will be as alumni of C. H. S. And so, God be with us all, today and every tomorrow.

RICHARD FITZGERALD

CLASS WILL

We, the exalted Senior Class of 1947, of Cathedral High School, City of Burlington, State of Vermont, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament.

Therefore, we bequeath the following:

- To Father Joy—We leave our sincere appreciation for his unselfish services in our behalf, both spiritually and intellectually.
- To Our Teachers—We extend our heartfelt thanks for their wise guidance and unfailing interest during our four years at Cathedral.
- To Mr. Hammond—We leave a carload of lawn mowers to help keep the parks beautiful.
- To Mr. Lechnyr—We leave a much smaller Glee Club.
- To Mrs. Holcomb—We leave a well-tuned piano.
- To "Coach" Maley—Although we leave quite a dent in his athletic material, we also leave him hopes of all the success possible in future years.
- To Mr. Akey—We leave the hope of a more efficient TOWER Board staff.
- To Mr. Magee—We bestow a new pen and a year's supply of jug slips.
- To Doris Lawrence—We leave a reclining chair so she won't get too tired working.
- To Mr. Neary—We leave the dream of a spotless school.
- To the Juniors—We leave our best manners and our courteous ways of conducting ourselves in the corridors and Senior home rooms.
- To the Sophomores—We leave our humility and good sportsmanship.
- To the Freshmen—We leave our old sling-shots and kiddy-cars.
- To Any Needy Junior—Madeline Roussin leaves the use of her ink bottle.
- To Charlotte McGarghan—Her big sister Pat leaves all her bookkeeping papers in hopes of success.
- To Cely Handy—Norma Godin leaves the pleasure of walking home alone after school.
- To Barb Norton—Mary Fuller leaves a steady partner to all the proms.
- To Viv Langlois—Her sister Lorraine leaves the use of all her clothes—almost.
- To Bernie Smyle and Bob Deso—Jeanne Audette leaves the music rack which has been a good old stand-by for three years.
- To Ernie Dusablon—Jean Rock leaves her talent in Shorthand.
- To Phyllis Ludwig—Rose Rouille leaves her book on "How to Take Care of Her Man" (and lose him).
- To Jackie O'Brien—Clarissa LaPierre leaves her volume on "How to Keep Out of Trouble."
- To Sonny Carty—Mary Delorge leaves her last year's bubble gum so he can retread his old set of tires for his travelling.
- To Any Junior—Joan Monroe leaves the pleasure of asking Sister Raymond unnecessary questions.
- To Armand Senesac—Henry Beshaw leaves his special reserved parking place.
- To Bob Fitzgerald—His big brother Dick leaves the pleasure of getting up in the morning to do the chores.
- To Bob McKenzie—Harry McCarthy leaves 101 ways to crash a party.

- To Jean Polworth—Aggie McKenzie leaves the instructions on "The Care of Roses."
- To Bob Ray—Al Mitchell leaves his book on "Dream of a Major League Career."
- To Janny McKenzie—Kitty Miller leaves the privilege of changing her mind often.
- To Bill Gifford—Rolland Gifford leaves his old faithful Chevy.
- To Some Desperate Junior—Martin Beauvais leaves all his English notes—ahem!
- To Jean Hayes—Her sister Ruth leaves her old seat in Room C in front of Sister Louise, in hopes that she will be much quieter.
- To Jimmy Donahue—Philip LaMothe leaves his eagerness to study at all times.
- To Charlie Ploof—Bernie Korzun leaves a lifetime position at the First National plus a promotion to the top floor.
- To Next Year's Business Staff—Pete Carney bestows a brand new taxi to get back and forth from Pomeroy.
- To Priscilla Dufresne—Janet Knight leaves her seat in the large and spacious Room C.
- To Johnny Brigham—Ann Chaperon leaves her old excuse for getting out of jug slips.
- To Rita Rochleau—Gerry DeVarney leaves a reserved seat on the busses for all the out of town games.
- To John Dubuc—Jack Farnham leaves a stack of old racing forms in the hope that he will have better luck at the tracks.
- To Bobby Lane—Tommy Blow leaves the book entitled "Secrets on How to Raise Heck and Get Away With It."
- To Rit McClintock—His sister Rosie leaves an alarm clock so he can get to school on time.
- To Fern Bordeaux—Mary Thomas leaves her old chewed up pencils for writing in jug.
- To Mary Cassell—Gen Barone leaves her soft-soled shoes so she can sneak into Glee Club late without being seen.
- To Norm Deforge and Al Anger—Dick Brisson leaves his instructions on "How to Get Out of School in Four Years, in Six Easy Lessons."
- To Pat Blaise—Gerry Lenihan leaves her seat by the window in Room S so she will have a good view of what's going on outside.
- To Tessie Audette and Terry Dusablon—Blanche Audette regrets to leave her vacant place in the rumble seat of the old car to get to and from school.
- To Ami Pizzagalli—Her sister Norma leaves her old baton.
- To Janice Goyette—Shirley Little leaves the job of making all kinds of posters for all occasions.
- To Lil Sequin—Gloria D'Orazio leaves her stack of books to sit on in study period.
- To Joan McKenzie—Buddy Gibbons leaves the ability to go out every night and have a good time.
- To Shirley Lawrence—Margie McCormick leaves a cake of soap to blow bubbles.
- To Jimmy Polworth—Bob Daley leaves his good name and reputation.
- To Bob Giroux—Tommy Thomas leaves his good looks, sharp wit, and red book of addresses.
- To John Shanks—Dick Marrier leaves his book on "How to Type the Easy Way" for Sister Celine.

To Lorraine Richards—Jane Sherman leaves her book entitled "How to Stay Awake During Class."

Signed and sealed this twelfth day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred, and forty-seven.

CLASS PROPHECY

One bright morning in the summer of the year 1964, I made out my grocery list, went out to the garage, and debated with myself whether I should take the helicopter or the automatic Studebaker. I finally decided on the car, pushed the button, and went riding off.

I stopped at the place where the A & P had been in the old days, but which now was known as the Mammoth Food Market, and occupied the whole half block on St. Paul Street. Don LaMothe, Bill Desautels, and Charlie Billups have certainly become great successes.

As I started over to the meat counter, I collided with Kitty Miller, who was with Gen Barone, Jane Sherman, and Aggie McKenzie. All were happily married, and were buying choice tid-bits for the bridge party that evening. Jane told me that hubby Pete Carney was in Paris getting the latest fads on men's clothing, being ably assisted by Jack Tourville.

Barb Gibbons and Claire LaPierre had returned from Hollywood for a visit, and were to be the guest speakers at the bridge party. Rosie McClintock, a leading comedienne on the stage, was unable to make it home this summer as her schedule was too full.

I noticed Phil LaMothe, Henry Beshaw, Jimmy Duddy, Dick Bouchard, Art Demage, Ken Gee, and Danny Ryan buying caviar for the annual banquet for the Bachelors' Club.

That evening at the party, I learned a great deal about my high school classmates. Al Mitchell, Bernie Ross, Dave Bixby, George Daigler, Gerry Daigneault, and Dick Marrier were all playing on major league baseball teams now, and each had distinguished himself on the diamond. Tommy Thomas was owner and manager of the Burlington Cardinals, who were tied for first place in the American League.

Louise McKenzie, Ann Chaperon, and Norma Godin had entered nurses' training at the close of high school days, and now ran a home for the aged where the best of care was given and which was known as "The Happy Years."

Jeannine Brown, Joyce Godbout, Marion Shea, Mary Jane Boileau, and Annette Calarco had been invited by Blanche Audette to attend a conference of the Brilliant Business Women of America which was being held in New York.

After this discussion, it was time for refreshments, and we were served delicious hors d'oeuvres from the Tasty Pastry Shop which was run by Margie Chicoine, Virginia Deso, and Theresa Lavallee.

While eating, we went on where we left off. Someone mentioned that the four leading lawyers of the fair city were Don Beauchemin, Jack Farnham, Don Hamlin, and Martin Beauvais. This year marked Tommy Blow's third term as mayor.

Dick Hammond, Kenny Kane, and Franny Barrett ran the ferry from Burlington to Port Henry. On the ferry, Walt Flynn flipped giant hamburgers fried in the juiciest of onions. This four-decker boat had become a great hit. Lucky Barone, as navigator, knew all the points of interest to all, and every Sunday the entire family went on the trip, and made a day of it.

Bernie and John Korzun had opened a photograph studio. Their assistant was Harriet Gonyeau, who had become quite adept at taking and developing pictures herself.

Shirley Little, Kathryn Gutchell, and Bob Reuschel had gone in for the finer art of painting. Bob's sideline was drawing cartoons, and everyone was calling him the second Walt Disney. One saw illustrations by Kathryn and Shirley in all the leading magazines.

Bob Daley had organized a band in which Leo Croto was beating it out on the drums, and the featured vocalist was Harry McCarthy. Speaking about singing, Theresa Bashaw made her debut at the Metropolitan about five years ago, and was now touring the world. This week she was to sing a duet with Howard Ross in London.

Norma Pizzagalli, Pat Maisonneuve, Jeannette Fontaine, Margie McCormick, and Rose Rouille were leading models in Monsieur Bonnet's exclusive dress shop. Last week, three gentlemen from Paris came to visit his shop, and Bobby was very willing to impart his ideas to them.

Lorraine Barron, the Governor's secretary, was in town for the week-end, and she brought news of his Excellency Richard Fitzgerald and his wife, nee Mary Ellen Fuller.

Lorraine Langlois ran a beauty salon known as "The Powder Puff." Her assistants were Gloria D'Orazio, Helen Touchette, Gertrude Stokes, and Madeline Roussin. They had hung a sign over the door which caught the eye as you went out and read, "You wanted it!" Very ingenious. They specialized in French aircuts, a very new and different style.

Leading dentists in the city were Buzzy Farmer, Paul Gagnon, Clement Marrier, and Jimmy Hooper. They all claimed to pull teeth with the greatest of ease and comfort to the victim. The brilliant surgeon, Dr. Joseph Plunkett and his assistants Drs. Rolland Gifford, Richard Brisson, and Mark Gardner were campaigning for a new hospital wing at the Fanny Allen, and were meeting with great success.

Corrine Veters and Anastasia Tierney were teaching Greek and Spanish respectively at a girls' school of which Jimmy Rayta was the president.

Don Dooley, aided by Frank Wagner and Buck Lefebvre, were selling airplanes of different styles. You had your choice of either the jet-propelled or the slow and easy type helicopter.

Gerry DeVarney, Jeanne Audette, and Gerry Lenihan had majored in chemistry in college, and were doing research work. They had just recently perfected runproof nylons.

Joan Monroe, Mary Delorge, Grace Yandow, and Marion McGarghan ran a millinery shop called "The Hat Box." Their exclusives were known all over the country, and they handled a piece of straw like it was pure gold.

Our daily newspaper was jointly owned by Jack O'Sullivan and Jim Traynor, and was edited by Bob Kirkbride. Norm and Jim McEnrue wrote a column entitled "Don't Do It, and Why." Gabrielle Gauthier's column "Humorous Situations," was widely read and caused a great deal of laughter in many homes. I read in the paper that morning that the Cathedral girls' basketball team was invited to Washington, the members being guests of the president. Their coach, Jean Rock, was just bursting with pride.

Bernie Wheel had just won the lightweight championship of the world. He claimed that it was all due to his manager John Wynne and trainer Clayt Shepard.

Bill Strong, Bill Terrien, and Dick Hammond from Winooski were in the contracting business, and had recently finished constructing an airport for the student aviators going to and from Pomeroy. The new and very revolutionary interior decorating for the houses they had built was done by Ann Marie Pepin and Aline Dupras.

Ruth Hayes was on the air every Sunday evening with News of Interest to All. Her puns were often quoted, and even to this day, as in high school days at Cathedral when there was only one building, her giggling is still as infectious as ever. When she feels like a vacation, Arlene Holcomb, though happily married, takes over and does a wonderful job of it. Eleanor Viens and Janet Knight make up little ditties for advertising. Their latest was, "If you want to sing while you're sudsing, then you'll sing with Susan's Super-super Suds for sudsing sooty suits." The announcer, Herman Stockinger, had a hard time getting that one out last Sunday, but he made it after the third try. The technicians, Reggie DeVarney and Don Ray, were so overcome with the humor of it all that they forgot to cut the program off, and oh! the sputtering that could be heard.

It's a funny thing, whenever anyone mentions a bridge party, you don't think of bridge, you think of talk. When I arrived home that evening though, I told myself that we really didn't just talk, what we did was reminisce.

ARLENE O'HARE

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

This evening marks the beginning and the end of important periods of our lives. We are leaving behind us, important, yes, and perhaps the most beautiful and happy days we shall ever see, our school days. We now turn with courage and enthusiasm to face life, to find places in the complicated pattern of this unsettled world.

At this time, when we hear the daily cry of a devastated Europe, the stories of hunger and famine, of ruined nations, we feel, nevertheless, that we are prepared to set out with confidence and courage. This confidence and courage is founded on our hope in the Supreme Being who we know can bring peace and order to a chaotic world. We trust that our every action will be performed according to the Christian principles taught us at C. H. S.

We realize that we are recipients of the priceless gift of the Catholic Faith and we pray that we may ever be worthy of it. This faith has been strengthened by contact with such valuable friends as His Excellency, Bishop Ryan, Monsignor Brennan, and our principal, Father Joy. We are indebted to them for their spiritual guidance. We thank God, too, for giving us loving and responsible parents, ever mindful of their duties. Wisely they sent us to a school where we received a thorough Christian training. We are well aware of the sacrifices they have made. As proof of our gratitude we hope to make our lives a source of joy to them.

Words cannot express our appreciation to our teachers who have so conscientiously guided us in our mental and moral development. Through their self-sacrifice and patience they have given to us the knowledge which will help us through our chosen walks of life. Our regard for them will be the highest; our affection, deep. In leaving them we make this prayer: "May God ever bless them in their work."

It is with deep regret that we bid farewell to our Alma Mater which we shall long remember. To the members of the class of '48 we extend our thanks for their constant participation in all our school activities. To them also we extend our best wishes that their Senior year may be spent in happiness and harmonious cooperation, while on all the underclassmen, who have helped to make our high school life a happy one, we place the responsibility to uphold the traditions and ideals of C. H. S.

FAREWELL TO THE SENIORS

Three years have elapsed since the class of 1948 entered Cathedral High School. These three years have been happy ones in forming friendships which will endure forever.

We, the Juniors, have observed you Seniors diligently mounting the "ladder of success" round by round, ever looking forward to the next, reaching it, and passing on. This constitutes a goal which we, as Juniors, can well strive to emulate.

The Catholic principles installed in our hearts, which have been so well learned by you Seniors while attending Cathedral High School, will be constantly with you, enabling you to overcome any obstacle and to cope with any challenge which may confront you. May you be endowed with fidelity, loyalty, and courage. This is the sincere wish of the Junior class.

In saying farewell to you, our schoolmates, we wish you the greatest of happiness and success and send our prayers and best wishes along with you.

In Memoriam

"The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away." These words are familiar to all of us. And yet how easily we forget, in days of possession, that the day will come when the Lord will taketh away. So it was with Sister Mary Annunciata.

As a teacher we knew Sister to be more than just an inspiration; she was an example that few could successfully imitate. As a person, Sister Annunciata comforted and warmed us with her generous personality; as a nun, we stood in awe of her deep and simple nearness to God.

Now when we are lamenting her death, a tribute should be paid in her memory. No written eulogy can be commensurate to her honor. No greater tribute can be offered than the intention in our prayers.

"STUNT NITE"

The Freshman Class staged a house party and each actor imitated one of the various characters usually found under such conditions. This debut of theirs was impressing and very promising of better shows in the future from them.

The Sophomores as usual were at their best carrying away first prize with their talented musical fantasy. Characters were most admirably presented and portrayed attractively. This class is well on its way to the making of a record—that of winning first prize for four consecutive years.

From the Junior body a most unusual and effective skit was produced. A traveling circus assembled in the confined quarters of a court room. The audience gave their entire attention to the plot as it developed, presenting a fascinating display of talent.

The Seniors climaxed the contributions of their four years of Stunt Nite participation in the splendid presentation of a Spanish Fiesta. All the temperament and spirited blood of the people from south of the border was arrayed on a colorful stage for a half hour. This skit won for the Seniors second prize and the satisfaction of a job well done and an audience well pleased.

GREEN MOUNTAIN GIRLS' STATE

As in previous years Girls' State was again held at Vermont Junior College in Montpelier. It proves itself a valuable experience by teaching the fundamentals of town and state government. It is our fondest wish that it be continued in order to insure a better government. High schools throughout the state were represented. Through the generosity of many local organizations we were able to attend.

Those who represented Cathedral High School and the offices held are as follows:

Mary E. Fuller	Secretary of State
Jeanne Audette	State Treasurer
Agnes McKenzie	Senator
Arlene O'Hare	Town Representative
Geraldine DeVarney	Justice of the Peace
Mary Thomas	School Commissioner
Marjorie McCormick	Selectman

GREEN MOUNTAIN BOYS' STATE

Through the continued generosity of the American Legion and various societies, a group of Cathedral boys had the opportunity of attending Boys' State. After a lapse of a year, because of the war, Boys' State activities were once again resumed at Norwich University.

For one full week the boys, representative of Vermont youth, were taught about government in an active manner. Those in attendance benefited by this training and in addition had a good time and made a host of new friends.

The representatives were as follows:

Richard Fitzgerald	Constable
Peter Carney	Town Lister
Richard Brisson	Town Lister
Thomas Blow	Justice of the Peace
Paul Gagnon	Town Representative
Harry McCarthy	Town Representative
Charles Billups	Town Lister

SODALITY

This year the merged Girls' and Boys' Sodalities participated in a full and active year, both spiritually and socially. First came the election and installation of the following officers:

Girls	Boys
Prefect Agnes McKenzie	Thomas Blow
Vice-Prefect Jane Sherman	John Dubuc
Secretary Mary Ellen Fuller	George Daigler
Treasurer Lorraine Langlois	Robert Reuschel
Sacristan Mary Cassell	Howard Ross

The outstanding feature of the year was the Living Rosary, presented by the two Sodalities for the student body. The ceremony was not only beautiful and impressive, but also deep and rich with religious devotion.

Another of the joint activities was the Christmas play "No Room in the Inn." It was so appreciatively received that the cast was requested to present a second showing at Mount St. Mary's.

Other projects sponsored by the Sodalities during the course of the year were: The Triduum, a Christmas offering to the poor, our Annual Prom, the C. U. C. Contest, the May Crowning, a special novena to Our Lady, the annual field day, the bowling leagues and tournaments and several short skits, which were thoroughly enjoyed by the students.

The privilege of belonging to the Sodality of Our Blessed Lady is the fact that we have a very beautiful way of expressing our undying love for Mary and her Divine Son. Let each Sodalist continue to pay tribute to the Mother of God by his faithful fidelity to his duties and his devotion to Our Queen.

To The Musicians

Another parting of the ways has caught up with us and again congratulations are in order.

I will miss you from the ranks of the Band, Orchestra and Glee Clubs dear seniors but I know too that your participation in music these past four years at Cathedral will always bring back happy memories of artistic achievement in concert or parade.

It is my hope that you will always be true to the ideals and teachings of C. H. S.—you are our future citizens—you are important.

Sincerely, your friend,

DR. LECHNYR

To The Glee Clubs

Seniors, my very sincere wishes for a happy and successful life in the years that are ahead. It is with reluctance that I watch you leave Cathedral High; but experience, that good teacher, has shown that just as you stepped up to your responsibilities as Seniors, so will the Juniors who now inherit from you. Sophomores, I note with pride, have kept up the spirit displayed as Freshmen, and we can say with assurance, "They will be fine Juniors." And now, Freshmen, make the most of those inches you have added to your stature since September—replace with credit that Super-Sophomore Class.

DEBATES

The lively love of battle which is predominant in all Indian nature is not lacking in Cathedral High as witnessed by the annual interclass debates. It is especially at this time that we find students working together with great earnestness and determination.

This careful research was displayed in both of the debates held this year. The Junior-Senior debate was on the following topic: Resolved, That the Federal Government should provide a system of free medical care for all citizens. The Seniors upheld the affirmative in such a skillful way that they were well deserving of the honor given them by the approving judges and student body.

The topic of the Freshman-Sophomore debate was of vital interest and consisted in the proposition: "Resolved, That the United States should give aid to Greece. The judges decided in favor of the Freshman side by a close margin.

Congratulations are due to both winners and losers for the excellent work and good sportsmanship shown in both battles. May this tradition prosper and be as successful in the future as it has been in the past.

This year's debaters were:

FOOTBALL

After a lapse of twenty-five years, football was once more introduced to the students at Cathedral High School and much to the surprise of everyone had a very good season in spite of the fact that the team on the whole was light and inexperienced.

Coach Don Maley met a large group of aspiring footballers last fall and fashioned them into a smooth, hard fighting unit. The caliber of play would have done justice to a great many schools throughout the state who have fielded teams in the past. In the season's opener they journeyed to Proctor and lost by two T. D. S. The score might well have been reversed had the boys played a game or two before this encounter. Then came successive wins over Midd, Hardwick, and Hardwick again. The team then set their hearts on a game with our traditional rival B. H. S. and a post-season game was arranged. Experience told the story and Burlington won 27-0.

A large portion of the starting eleven will receive their diplomas in June but Coach Maley will have a number of this year's squad to form a strong nucleus for next season. The Class of 1947 extends best wishes to the coach and teams in the years to come.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

As in previous years, Cathedral High School was again productive of a basketball squad which it can be proud. In spite of the defeat suffered at the hands of Spaulding High School in the first round of the State Basketball Tournament, an excellent record of 18 wins against 5 losses was compiled.

Coach Don Maley returned this season after an absence of three years and rounded the team, which was lacking in height, into a hard-fighting, determined unit. With nine veterans from last year's team returning and an excellent prospect from the jayvee squad to work with Coach Maley's quintet virtually beat everyone in sight. During the regular season they defeated Burlington High School twice and won the Northern League title without a loss, and the way they won it is worth retelling. They were playing Spaulding at Barre, with a loss dropping the team into a tie with them for the league crown. At half-time they were at the short end of a 24-9 count. In addition, two of the boys were injured and it was doubtful if one of them could continue. Resuming the game, the boys fought valiantly, bringing the score up to a 35-35 tie at the final whistle. The struggle went into an overtime period and then a "sudden death." Dick Corey then let a long shot go and Cathedral won 37-35. This game was symbolic of the fight and die hardness of the team and because of the sportsmanship and virtue shown in the skirmish Father Joy called a holiday for the next school day.

Climaxing a successful season, Cathedral was invited to the New England Catholic Interscholastic Basketball Tournament and advanced to the semi-finals before bowing to LaSalle Academy of Pawtucket, Rhode Island.

We, the class of 1947, sincerely hope that Coach Maley and the team will successfully defend their position at the top of the Northern League for the 1947-48 season.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Under the tutelage of Coach John Akey this year, the junior varsity compiled a record of which they can well be proud. The team was composed solely of freshmen and sophomores who displayed great ability and even greater promise.

With added experience we can expect these boys to be leading contenders for state basketball laurels in interscholastic competition.

CHEERLEADERS

Another year has elapsed on sports and again another page has turned on the efforts of the cheerleaders. The cheerleaders this past year have proven their acrobatic ability and in addition introduced several new cheers which have already become a part of C. H. S. The squad this year consisted of nine men, six of whom are veterans from last year. Tommy Daley, Jack Tourville, "Slugger" Wheel, Don Hamlin, Bob Daley and Tommy Blow were the veterans, and Norm DeForge, Floyd Patneau and Bob Bonnette were the newest arrivals.

The cheerleaders this year have compiled a splendid record, may they have as much success next year.

BASEBALL

With the makings of a great ball club, Cathedral looks forward to a successful baseball season. With the majority of last year's team returning, Coach Maley has his work cut for him. The team will be handicapped by the loss of George Daigler, one of the State's leading hurlers last season, and Bernie Ross, his hard-working battery mate. Capable replacements have been found, however. Gerry Daigneault has given up his third base position and has donned the mask behind the plate, while Kenny Kane has returned to head the pitching staff and will bring woe to opposing batsmen. He will be assisted in his mound duties by Bob Reuschel. Rounding out the team is Dave Bixby at first, Dick Marrier at second, Pat Brown at third, and Dick Corey at shortstop. Patrolling the outfield will be Joe Daigler, Al Mitchell, and Lucky Barone who has returned to school after a period in the service.

An array of performers of such caliber as these can bring only success and we are confident in extending our best wishes for a successful season.

Gratitude

We, the class of '47, dedicate this page to the merchants, professional men, and individuals, who have advertised in this book, in order to express our appreciation for their assistance.

We know that without their interest and cooperation the publication of this book would have been impossible.

Therefore, with heartfelt gratitude we urge all subscribers of this yearbook to patronize and support the firms represented on the following pages.
